PROGRESS OF THE PLAGUE.

MARSEILLES VIRTUALLY IN THE GRASP OF THE

Marseilles, August 25.—The cholera panic has now extended to all classes in the city, and all who can get away are resorting to flight. Deaths from the cholera have occurred in many of the towns and villages in the department of the Rhone. In Langes eight fatal cases of cholera have been reported, in Grans three, and in St. Chamus three. Besides these, several cases of cholera exist in Istres, Morigean, Aix and Arles. It is also reported that four persons died from the cholera in Sisteron in the Alps.

Marseilles, August 25.—Sixty-seven deaths from cholera reported yesterday.

Toulon, August 25.—Thirty-four persons died from cholera in this city yesterday. There have been twenty-five deaths from cholera the past twenty-four hours and about the French squadron.

Marseilles, August 25.—Seventy new cases of cholera were reported here today, and there were thirty-eight deaths from the disease. A report that the French fleet, broken up in the French squadron anchored near Toulon is confirmed. Seven cases of cholera and three deaths were reported from the fleet today.

THE DAILY RECORD IN SPAIN.

Madrid, August 25.—During the past twelve hours there has been reported in Madrid twenty-two new cases of cholera, and eleven deaths. King Alfonso visited the hospitals here today and will return to La Granja tomorrow.

Madrid, August 25.—King Alfonso will visit the cholera hospitals tomorrow. There were 4701 new cases of cholera and 1433 deaths from the disease reported throughout Spain yesterday.

THE CAROLINE GOBBLE.

FRANCE NEWSPAPERS JUBILANT OVER SPAIN'S ACTION.

Paris, August 25.—The French newspapers are praising Spain for the attitude she assumed towards Germany over the Caroline affair. They advise Spain to resist Bismarck's greed, and assure the Spaniards that Bismarck will yield if he continues to maintain a bold front. A great deal is said in the press about the Franco-Spanish alliance. This causes uneasiness in French official circles, because it is feared that Bismarck may make a forcible complaint about it.

ENGLAND CARED WITH CONTINUED.

Madrid, August 25.—The correspondence charges that England has given tacit approval of Germany's conduct in seizing the Caroline Islands.

Count von Salomon Sonnenwald, German ambassador to Spain, who for some time past has felt constrained to abstain from appearing in public, is about to go to Berlin to enjoy a holiday.

ROYALTY HOBNOBBING.

HAMBURG AND ROMANOFFS KISSING AND EMBRACING.

KREMSIER, August 25.—At the meeting of the Russian and Austrian imperial families today the Hapsburgs were the Russian uniform and the Romanoffs were the Austrian uniform. The meeting took place at the railway station, and the monarchs embraced. The czar and empress then entered the same carriage, and went to the Schloss. The emperors and empresses indulged in much embracing and kissing. The czar knelt and kissed the hand of the Austrian empress.

THE KINGS MEET.

KREMSIER, August 25.—The czar and empress, accompanied by the imperial entourage, arrived here at 11:30 this morning. The czar, wearing the Russian uniform, and the empress, in the Austrian uniform, were driven through the vast park surrounding the Schloss. Emperor Francis Joseph, his son, the crown prince, and the crown princess met the czar at the railway station.

The British and their allies in this battle killed a large number of hostile Arabs in Shilat and captured enough grain and cloth to make a large cargo.

WASHINGTON WAIFS.

A LAW THAT SHOULD WORK BOTH WAYS.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—The case of the sixty paupers, who were refused landing at New York, but who were subsequently landed at Halifax, or at one of the Canadian ports, and made their way thence into the United States has been laid before the treasury department. Mr. Lyman, chief of navigation, says there is no remedy that the pauper emigrant law only applies to landing directly from the ship, and is silent on the question of their coming by land. Congress will be asked to legislate on the subject.

No Hope of John McCullough's Recovery.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., August 25.—Mr. George W. Arundel, who was the commissioner of lunacy appointed by the court to inquire into the mental condition of John McCullough, has just returned from a visit to Bloomingdale asylum where Mr. McCullough has been confined under treatment.

In speaking of the unfortunate man's condition, Mr. Arundel said today: Mr. McCullough's condition is that of a decrepit old man. He is unable to walk, and his condition is hopeless. He labored in his endeavor to place me but had no evidence of recognition. As I was leaving the doctor and Mr. McCullough clasped the doctor's hand and bade him good bye as if he was going to leave with me. The doctor told me that his condition is hopeless and that his death is only a question of a few months.

MURDEROUS APACHES ON THE RAMPAGE.

NOGALES, Ariz., August 25.—The murder of three Americans and eight Mexicans at Basachuc, by Apaches, has been confirmed by Agapito Franco, who arrived here yesterday from the scene of the crime.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., August 25.—Sixty Apaches made a raid, on Friday last, on the ranches near San Pedro, Mexico, forty miles from Tombstone. The Apaches killed a number of horses. The raid was witnessed by a squad of Mexican soldiers, but no interference was attempted.

The report reached here today that San Bernardino ranch, famous in connection with Indian hostilities, has been abandoned, owing to the depredations of the hostiles. Forty armed citizens left here for the Mexican border to assist in driving the Indians from the United States soil.

Veteran's Reunion.

St. JOSEPH, August 25.—Elaborate preparations are now being made for the holding of the veteran's reunion here September 23, 24 and 25 at the exposition grounds. There is every indication that fully 50,000 people will be present, and the officers of the association are using every possible effort to make their visit a comfortable and pleasant one. Gen. John A. Logan, S. B. Burdett, Commander-in-Chief of the W. A. C., William T. Sherman, Governor Martin, of Kansas, and many other prominent gentlemen will be present. There will also be in attendance large numbers from Kansas and Nebraska. The boys in gray will be welcome, and will be here in large numbers. Delegations of veterans will come from Kansas City, Independence, and many other southern Missouri cities and towns.

Champion Bicycle Race.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—In the bicycle race here to-night between John Brooks, of Pennsylvania, and W. A. Woodside, the Irish champion, the American record at various distances were broken, and the twenty-mile race won by Brooks by five feet in one hour, two minutes and forty-one seconds, breaking the American record by five minutes and two seconds.

Another Prominent Embezzler.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., August 25.—S. Y. Calvin, secretary of the Beaver Falls Building and Labor association, one of the most prominent citizens of the town, has been arrested on the charge of embezzling $10,000 of the funds of the association. The accused gave bail for hearing next Saturday, when he claims he can prove his innocence.

A Railroad Collision.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., August 24.—A passenger train on the Reading railroad collided with a shifting engine this afternoon just above Mepstown. Both engines and one passenger car, coal and box cars, were wrecked. About a dozen persons were injured, but none dangerously. Misunderstanding of signals was the cause of the accident.

The Cold Wave Broken.

St. PAUL, Minn., August 25.—The St. Paul service here shows this morning the frost line last night extended south as far as Moorhead, where the mercury fell to 32°, the killing frost point. There need be no further fear of frost in this section for the present for the cold wave is now broken.

WINDS WEEP AROUND AN ISLAND SEVEN-

MILES AN HOUR.

SULLIVAN'S ISLAND, August 25.—The hurricane last night and this morning was terrific and destructive. The New Brighton hotel had over a hundred guests, and great fears were entertained for their safety. About 9 o'clock this morning the storm reached its greatest velocity. At that hour, while the hotel people were breakfasting, the Ocean fell with a great crash. Fortunately all the rooms in that building had been vacated. There were grave apprehensions that the dining room and main hall would soon succumb to the violence of the wind.

At 9 o'clock the wind changed from the south, and the storm moved on to the north. The maximum of the storm was from sixty-five to seventy miles an hour. The New Brighton hotel is intact, having stood the storm without serious damage. At one o'clock it was entirely over. Loss to the New Brighton hotel was $33,000. The storm caused destruction to property on the island. The island was in the main submerged, but when the wind changed the tide receded.
